

Why the coloured doors?

These beautifully restored Baroque 18th century warehouses were built by Grand Master Pinto as stores for the Knights of St. John.

The different colours on the doors represented the goods that were stored inside, namely yellow for wheat, red for wine, green for produce and blue for fish.

*Destination
Valletta Waterfront*

PRIME WINE & DINE

Relax at the water's edge with a glass of fine wine, cocktails, champagne and cigars al fresco or indoors in one of the 18th century's restored warehouses.

At Q Bar Malta we are proud to introduce hot stone cooking, the new dining concept of cooking your own meal just the way you like it and at your own table.

operated by follow us on

Simply Great

Whether for lunch, dinner or a special function, at Bistro 516 we offer great value for money.

A varied and wholesome menu caters for all tastes from sizzling starters, salads and platters to juicy steaks, fresh fish and sumptuous mussels that are accompanied by a wide choice of local and foreign wines.

Be sure not to miss out on our mouth-watering desserts.

VALLETTA WATERFRONT
T: 2747 6808 M: 9947 6808
W: www.qbar.com.mt

Email: spt@go.net.mt Web: www.spt.com.mt

VALLETTA WATERFRONT
T: 2124 1000 M: 9947 6808
W: www.bistro516.com.mt